SBA Provides Government Contracting Training Charles Town – Thursday, September 24, 2015

CHARLES TOWN, WEST VIRGINIA — The U.S. Small Business Administration, Eastern Panhandle Technology Innovation Center, West Virginia Small Business Development Center, and Regional Contracting Assistance Center conduct a free three hour live training Thursday, September 24 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the APU Eastern Panhandle Technical Innovation Center in Charles Town.

The training provides an overview of the basic tools needed to sell your goods or services to the government. Presenters review the System for Award Management, Federal Procurement Data System, Dynamic Small Business Search database, and highlights SBA's small business certifications.

Following the training session presenters are available for questions. The training is free and open to the public. Register at www.sba.gov/wv.

###

The mission of the SBA is to aid, counsel, assist and promote the interests of small businesses by providing financial, procurement and business development assistance and advocating on their behalf within the government. All SBA programs are extended to the public on a non-discriminatory basis.

Reasonable arrangements for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact: Melissa Loder, West Virginia District Office, 320 West Pike Street, Suite 330, Clarksburg, WV 26301, (304) 623-7448, melissa.loder@sba.gov.
